

Community Genealogy Workshop

WHAT

Saturday, May 31, 2025, 1:00 PM - 3:00 PM

400 N. Church Ave., MULBERRY, FL 33860

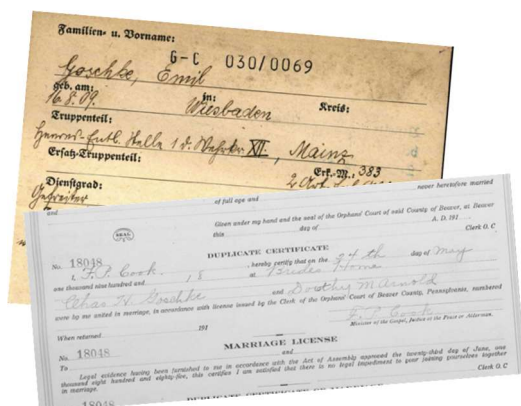

Free! Pre-registration, to guarantee personal consultation time, at ipgs.org Events. Walk-ins welcome.

- Your family tree information (as much as you currently have)
- Copies of any family documents, photos, or records
- A laptop or tablet (optional but recommended)
- Your research questions and genealogical "brick walls"
- A notebook for taking notes

WHY

Family history research is both rewarding and challenging. Our workshop offers the perfect opportunity to:

- Learn from experienced genealogists in your community
- Get personalized help with your specific research problems
- Connect with others who share your interest in family history
- Discover new resources and techniques to advance your research
- Begin preserving your family's unique story for future generations

The Imperial Polk Genealogical Society is dedicated to promoting family history research through education, preservation of records, and community outreach. Our members range from beginners to professional researchers, all sharing a passion for connecting people with their ancestral past.

IPGSInfo@ipgs.org